MISSOULA--

Late registration for the annual University of Montana Taxation and Estate Planning Institute will be conducted from 8:30-9:20 a.m. Friday, Dec. 5, in the Five Valleys Ballroom in the University Center.

Formal sessions for the two-day program will begin at 9:20 a.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6, according to Lester R. Rusoff, UM law school professor and institute director.

Registration will also be conducted from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 4, at the Village Motor Inn. A reception will follow. The registration fee of $25 includes refreshments Thursday evening, tuition, outlines and refreshments during breaks in the program.

Among this year's featured speakers are Donald H. Kelley, North Platte, Neb., who will speak Saturday on "Estate Planning for Agriculture," and Paul P. Lipton, Milwaukee, Wis., "How to Handle a Tax Fraud Case."

Rusoff said the program is open to lawyers, accountants, insurance underwriters, trust officers and interested lay persons. Anyone desiring additional information may phone the UM law school, 243-4311.
